

F4. Squared error is concentrated in the records with the largest observed losses; absolute error is spread far more evenly.

